INTERVIEW PROJECT

STEP 4 .

Prepare a project based on a published play text of your choosing.

Consider the following questions in relation to the specified play and be ready to discuss them at your interview:

- Text: What ideas is the playwright trying to express? What is the relevance of the play to contemporary Australian audiences?
- Characters and Actors: What kind of people are the characters in the play? In what kind of world do they exist? If you had complete freedom of choice, which actors would you cast in your production?
- Design: How does the design create the imaginative world of the play? What does it look like? How does it respond or transform with the story?
- Lighting: How should lighting be used to reveal and expose areas of this play and the design of your production?
- Costume, Sets and Props: What requirements are there in each of these areas?
- Music and Sound: What kind of music or sound effects would you use, and why?
- Theatre: Where would you stage your production? What kind of theatre or site will it be in? What kind of equipment will you require? What challenges might arise in the staging?
- Production Design Concept: Communicate your production through collected material. This could include models/drawings of sets and costumes, impressions in collage or electronic; anything that will help the selection panel to understand your production concept.

It must be clearly titled with your name as follows:

fullname__project__MFADIR__2024

You will upload your CV, critical essay, portfolio and interview project in the ‘Course Specific Application Requirements’ attachment section of your online application.

STEP 5. Complete and submit your application

Once you have uploaded your documentation you may submit your application.

STEP 6. Attend your interview

You will receive an email invitation to book in your Teams interview.

All efforts will be made to give applicants their preferred interview date but NIDA cannot guarantee the date and time – it is subject to staff availability.

Interviews are conducted by two NIDA staff members. All Round One interviews will take place via Microsoft Teams. Interviews will run for approximately 45 minutes.

During the interview, we will discuss your project; your ideas about theatre, film, and the broader creative industries; and why you want to study Directing at NIDA. There will be an opportunity for you to ask any questions you may have about NIDA or about the interview itself.

Some tips:

We know that interviews can sometimes be stressful, but we will do our best to make your experience as relaxing and enjoyable as possible.

The interview process is friendly, informal, and open, and is designed to give you the best opportunity to show us your potential and readiness to study at NIDA.

Remember, the more time and effort you put into your application and project, the better prepared you will be, and the more you will enjoy the interview.

You will be advised by email if you are successful in Round One.

If you are successful, you will receive an invitation for Round Two. This will include confirmation of a Directing Recall date.

ROUND TWO:

Directing Recall

Step 7. Attend the Directing Recall

If the selection panel would like to see more, you may be asked back for a recall interview on a separate date. Recall auditions, both in-person and remotely, will take place in November.

If you are short-listed for acceptance into the course after the recall, you may be asked to submit a list of three referees who have seen your work or worked with you in some arts-related capacity. NIDA may contact these referees before making a study offer.

Please note applicants who do not make it through to the recall stage for Master of Fine Arts (Directing) should consider their application unsuccessful for the 2024 intake.

CONDITIONS OF APPLYING

- Selection is based on merit; not all applicants who meet the published minimum entry requirements will receive a study offer.

- It is not possible to provide applicants with individual written or oral feedback on their audition/interview.
