STEP 5 Attend your interview!

Interviews are conducted by two NIDA staff members, and will take place via Zoom. Interviews will run for approximately 40 minutes each. The interview is in two parts:

1. First, there will be a brief talk about NIDA and the MFA (Writing for Performance) program. There will be time for you to ask any questions you may have about NIDA or the interview itself.
2. Each applicant will then be interviewed for around 30 minutes. We will discuss your portfolio; your ideas about theatre, films, and television; your worldview, concerns, ambitions, creative process, experience, and why you want to study Writing for Performance at NIDA.

Some tips:

We know that interviews can be stressful, but we will do our best to make your experience as relaxing and enjoyable as possible.

The interview process is friendly, informal and open, and is designed to give you the best opportunity to show us your potential and readiness to study at NIDA.

Remember, the more time and effort you put into your portfolio, the better prepared you will be, and the more you will enjoy the interview.

CONDITIONS OF APPLYING

- Selection is based on merit; not all applicants who meet the published minimum entry requirements will receive a study offer.
- All applicants are responsible for reviewing the course requirements and tuition fees as stated on the NIDA website.
- It is not possible to provide applicants with individual written or oral feedback on their audition/interview.
- Applicants who receive a study offer for 2022 must accept the offer within the time frame indicated.
- It is not possible to defer a study offer at NIDA.
