VIDEO AUDITION

STEP 3

All Round One auditions are to be submitted as video links in the appropriate field of the online application.

PREPARE FOR YOUR AUDITION

Your audition video should include two monologues. One should be filmed as a medium shot (i.e., from your waist up). The other should be filmed as a long shot (i.e., your full body).

1. One Modern/Contemporary Piece

This is a short monologue from a published play. 'Contemporary' means a play spanning the period of Anton Chekov (early 1900s) to the present day. You are welcome to present your modern/ contemporary piece in the language of your cultural background, but you must be prepared to present it in English as well.

We suggest choosing a piece from this Monologue List.

2. One Heightened Text and Language Piece

This is a short monologue in verse.

We suggest choosing a piece from this Monologue List.

3. If you have indicated that you are applying for the Singing Actor stream, you will also be required to upload a separate 60-second video performing a song from a musical theatre piece of your choice. This could even be an opera or operetta! This must be sung without any accompaniment (a cappella).

FILMING INSTRUCTIONS

1. Recording Format

You don't have to record with a professional camera; your audition can be recorded on your mobile phone. The important thing is that you are seen and heard clearly.

If you use your phone, please make sure the camera is not in 'High Efficiency Mode'. You should be able to check this in your phone's camera settings.

2. Set Up

You can use a stand or a surface or have someone hold your phone/camera for you.

Do not look directly into the camera, but just to one side; pick a focal point to your left or right. If someone is holding your phone/camera for you, you can speak your monologue to them as another character or a member of your audience.

If you are using your phone, shoot in landscape, NOT portrait.

3. Background

You must be seen clearly. Try to record against a plain, light background, without harsh shadows. Avoid busy, distracting images, or 'hard' colours like green and red. Grey can work well for a wide range of skin tones on screen.

4. Lighting

Do not sit directly in front of a window. A window in front of your face and behind the camera will work better. You can also use additional lighting, like the torch light from your phone, stand lamps, or bedside lamps. Avoid hard or awkward shadows.

5. Sound

You must be heard clearly. Check the space for sound disturbances. This could involve closing windows, turning off devices that beep or play music, air-conditioning, or noise/talking/cooking sounds from a nearby room.

6. Audition Pieces

You may record both pieces in one continuous shot or film these separately and edit them together.

In mid shot (waist up – leave a little head room) start by saying your name, Applicant number (e.g., A12345) and tell us which pieces you will be performing (character, title, and author).

Then present your first piece in mid shot frame.

Adjust your position so you are now in long shot (entire body in frame) and perform your second piece. This is an opportunity to embody the expressive range of the character.

SUBMITTING

STEP 4

- Review your recordings. This will help you pinpoint areas to improve on, including sound/vision quality. Have a break and then repeat the process. Don't overthink it! As a rule, try not to film more than three takes.
- You will not be timed, but the length of each monologue should aim to be close to 2 minutes. Your entire audition video should aim to be close to 4 minutes long (5 minutes if you are auditioning for the singing actor stream).
- When you are happy, upload your video to YouTube, making sure it is 'Unlisted'. This means only people with the link can view your audition. You are responsible for ensuring that your video link works before submitting your application.
- Your video description should include your name and NIDA Applicant number (e.g., A12345).
- Only upload one submission.
- If you have any problems with the upload, contact applications@nida.edu.au.

Click HERE for tips on how to record your audition.

Because you are submitting your audition with your online application, your video must be completed and submitted by the deadline of 5:00pm, Monday 16th September 2024.

ONLINE APPLICATION CONFIRMATION AND OUTCOME

You will receive a confirmation email when your application has been successfully submitted.

You will be advised by email if you are successful in Round One.

If you are successful, you will receive an invitation for Round Two. This will include instructions on how to select your recall audition date and location.

ROUND TWO

Recall Audition

STEP 5 - Select your recall date and location.

If the panel would like to see more from you, they will invite you to a recall audition, which will take place in person.

Recall auditions November/December 2024 and take place in most Australian capital cities. There will be no recall auditions held via Zoom. This means that international students must attend recall auditions in-person in Australia.

To book your recall location and time please log into the application portal using your login credentials and select the city and date from the lists of available recall sessions.

STEP 6 - Prepare for your recall audition.

Some tips:

1. If you applied for the Actor stream, you will be asked to present a third piece of your choice – this can be something not on our list.
2. If you applied for the Singing Actor stream, you will be asked to present a song chosen from the Song List in the Appendix of this guide. This must be sung in the specified key. NIDA will provide accompaniment on the day of your recall.
3. If you selected 'Both' in your application, you will be asked to present a song chosen from the Song List, as in point 2. You may also choose to prepare a third monologue of your choice, as in point 1.

If you perform a third monologue for your recall audition, you will only be considered for the Actor stream.

If you perform a song for your recall audition, you will be considered primarily for the Singing Actor stream but may also be considered for the Actor stream.

You will be asked to perform your Round One monologues again for the panel. Be ready to be redirected away from your original choices, and to work with other auditionees as scene partners.

After your recall audition, you will be informed by the panel if you are selected for the Shortlist. After Shortlisting, you will be informed by telephone if you are being invited to study at NIDA. Unsuccessful applicants will be informed via email.

SOME TIPS AND ADVICE

We know that auditions can be stressful, but we will do our best to make your experience as relaxing and enjoyable as possible.

Remember, the more time and effort you put into your monologues, the better prepared you will be and the more you will enjoy the audition.

DO:

- Only select monologues from published texts. Excerpts from unpublished TV shows or films are not appropriate.
- Read the whole play your monologue comes from – research is important!
- Choose characters close to your current age range.
- Choose characters that are in circumstances you can identify with and that you will enjoy exploring.
- Select pieces that are new and fresh to you.
- Pick monologues that will showcase you and your skills.
- Feel free to use contrasting material when choosing your monologues (e.g., serious and comedic; internal and external).
- Think about who you are talking to in the monologue and what you want from them – know what you mean, and what you want to say.
- Relax and enjoy yourself!

DON'T:

- Don't use a book of monologues, except as a reference – if you find a piece you like, you must still read the whole play.
- Don't choose material for shock value. There are no real rules around this, but we suggest you avoid material with strong sexual references or excessive use of explicit language.

CONDITIONS OF APPLYING

- Selection is based on merit; not all applicants who meet the published minimum entry requirements will receive a study offer.

- It is not possible to provide applicants with individual written or oral feedback on their audition/ interview.
- Applicants who receive a study offer for 2025 must accept the offer within the time frame indicated.
